Proudly Present:

Bob Drury's 'Viva Neil Diamond'

Sunday 28th November
at 7.45pm

Whilst performing in Las Vegas two years ago Bob Drury was described as 'one of the world's finest vocal tributes to Neil Diamond' and he's now back touring the UK with his new show celebrating the legendary Neil Diamond and his incredible back catalogue of songs. This year's show includes all the favourites such as Cracklin' Rosie, America, Love on the Rocks, Play Me, Hello Again, Forever in Blue Jeans, Beautiful Noise, I'm a Believer and many more. Tickets £14

Opera Anywhere presents 4 Gilbert O'Sullivan Operas

Fri 2nd November 7.45pm

The Mikado: a tangled web of love. High jinx, lots of energy and clever wordplay.

Saturday 3rd November at 3pm – The Pirates of Penzance:

An unfortunate case of mishearing initiates the plot for The Pirates of Penzance, resulting in a dramatic change of direction for Frederic.

Saturday 3rd November at 7.45pm –

Patience: A light opera, by Gilbert and Sullivan is the duo's extremely witty, infrequently performed little masterpiece about the aesthetic movement of the 1880s.

Sunday 4th November at 3pm – HMS

Pinafore: This is a tale of mismatched love across different social classes. Tickets £16 with seniors £14, under 18's £10 and 25% discount for purchases of tickets for all 4 shows booked at the same time.

Ten Tommies From Thame

Friday 9th and Saturday 10th November
at 7.45pm

Inspired by research from the Thame Remembers project and entirely conceived, written and performed by members of the Thame community, this production will mark the centenary of the WWI Armistice by telling their story. 'Ten Tommies from Thame' is a re-telling of a part of our local history and promises to be a unique evening's entertainment.
